FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
DALLAS DIVISION

LEROY NELSON, #46172-177,

Petitioner,

v.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Respondent.

Civil Action No. 3:17-CV-1003-L
Criminal Case No. 3:13-CR-134-L

ORDER

On August 16, 2017, United States Magistrate Judge Renée Harris Toliver entered the Findings, Conclusions and Recommendation of the United States Magistrate Judge (“Report”), recommending that the court dismiss with prejudice this habeas action brought pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255 as time-barred. In addition, the magistrate judge concluded that there was no basis to support equitable tolling. Plaintiff filed objections to the Report which were docketed on September 6, 2017. The matters raised in Plaintiff’s objections were addressed in the Report and do not affect the magistrate judge’s findings and recommendation.

Accordingly, having considered Petitioner’s § 2255 motion, the record in this case, Report, and having conducted a de novo review of that portion of the Report to which objection was made, the court determines that the findings and conclusions of the magistrate judge are correct, and accepts them as those of the court. The court, therefore, overrules Petitioner’s objections to the Report, denies Petitioner’s Motion Under § 2255 to Vacate, Set Aside, or Correct Sentence by a Person in Federal Custody, and dismisses with prejudice this action.

Considering the record in this case and pursuant to Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 22(b), Rule 11(a) of the Rules Governing §§ 2254 and 2255 proceedings, and 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c), the court denies a certificate of appealability.* The court determines that Petitioner has failed to show: (1) that reasonable jurists would find this court’s “assessment of the constitutional claims debatable or wrong;” or (2) that reasonable jurists would find “it debatable whether the petition states a valid claim of the denial of a constitutional right” and “debatable whether [this court] was correct in its procedural ruling.” Slack v. McDaniel, 529 U.S. 473, 484 (2000). In support of this determination, the court accepts and incorporates by reference the Report filed in this case. In the event that Petitioner files a notice of appeal, he must pay the $505 appellate filing fee or submit a motion to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal.

It is so ordered this 12th day of October, 2017.

* Rule 11 of the Rules Governing §§ 2254 and 2255 Cases provides as follows:

(a) Certificate of Appealability. The district court must issue or deny a certificate of appealability when it enters a final order adverse to the applicant. Before entering the final order, the court may direct the parties to submit arguments on whether a certificate should issue. If the court issues a certificate, the court must state the specific issue or issues that satisfy the showing required by 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(2). If the court denies a certificate, the parties may not appeal the denial but may seek a certificate from the court of appeals under Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 22. A motion to reconsider a denial does not extend the time to appeal.

(b) Time to Appeal. Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 4(a) governs the time to appeal an order entered under these rules. A timely notice of appeal must be filed even if the district court issues a certificate of appealability.
